5) Eight Years In The Desert - Very Limited Release Eight Bottle Gift Pack Set
Unlike other varietals Dave had to draw on an eight year memory of making Zinfandel and knowing that there would be a certain level of expectation of quality from both a wine and packaging elements. During the eight year hiatus, there was a focus and thought regarding the wine and label every single day up until the actual harvest and design could begin which multiplied the effort by a factor of 20. There were dozens of label concepts that were tried but ultimately hit the cutting room floor and were abandoned. All of that effort as well as trial and error lead to the evolution of the final package you see tonight. There are eight unique labels centered around the Joshua tree imagery.

8) Remy Martin Louis the XIII Cognac
Dating back to 1874 and introduced by Paul-Émile Remy Martin—a scion who, much like King Louis himself, oversaw the explosive growth of his domain—Louis XIII Cognac originated as a blend of only the finest eaux-de-vie he could find in his cellars. And to this day, nearly 150 years later, Louis XIII continues to be the crown jewel for the House of Rémy Martin. Ironically, one reason Louis XIII’s name lives on is not due to any of his accomplishments but rather because he is the namesake of one of the finest spirits in the world.

77) 1997 Heitz Cellar Martha’s Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley
There have only been three vintages in the history of the Martha’s Vineyard bottling that have been given unique labels by the winery: the 1974, 1985 and 1997. Kathleen Heitz Myers said that the special labels were selected to denote vintages of absolutely extraordinary character. The 1997, which was only the second vintage to be produced from the replanted vineyard, is indeed a brilliant young vintage of Martha’s, as it soars from the glass in a deep and youthfully beautiful blend of black cherries, cassis, saddle leather, woodsmoke, gentle notes of eucalyptus and still a touch of cedary oak spice. The 1997 Martha’s tips the scales at 14.3 percent alcohol and seems likely to be one of the all-time classics in the history of this bottling. Drink between 2020-2075

100) From Groth Cabernet Club - 2 Bottles and 'The Heart of the Crush' Poster
The 2015 Cabernet Sauvignon is big and lush with huge gobs of fruit in the aroma and flavor. The texture of the wine is soft and supple, typical of Cabernet Sauvignons grown in the area of the Oakville AVA. The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon is blended with 20% Merlot, this is a finely made wine that pleases in its granular texture and bright acidity. Sinewy in feel, it has fleshy aspects of red cherry and cassis that are complemented by a cradling of vanilla oak. Editors’ Choice, 93 Wine Enthusiast. Artist Suzanne Groth intertwines her art, family and work, with each release of a Groth Cabernet, she produces a new painting.
